REFERENCE SERIES

The Reference Series is an ambitious, exciting, and really delicious project. As you go from I to II to III, the quantity of older, exciting and altogether yummy whisky goes up (the exact proportions are stated on the bottle). This creates a series that when tasted in order, you'll catch recurrent qualities but notice a clear progression in terms of flavour profile. Awesome, awesomer, awesomest, if you will. But it doesn't stop there...

From here, the series will continue with a number of extensions that use these whiskies as a base but focus on a particular additional ingredient or technique. For example, I.1, II.1 and III.1 is partly finished in fresh 50 litre ex-Pedro Ximénez Sherry casks, while I.2, II.2 and III.2 are made with 10% peated single malt from Islay. The .3 extensions (I.3, II.3 and III.3) see the addition of el50a spirit caramel and future releases may include chill-filtered versions, for example.

THE SCOTCH MALT WHISKEY SOCIETY COLLECTION

We are very fortunate to be one of the few venues that are allowed to sell this scotch malt collection.

The distilleries of the bottles found below are not mentioned, and these are single cask, single malt bottlings. Any bottles designated with a "G" are made with single grain whiskey. The contents of a single cask may not reflect a distillery's style; therefore a different form of identification is needed.

Everything we know about the bottle is recorded on this list. If you must know more, contact the Society at smwsa.com and perhaps they will be willing to offer more information.

Enjoy your wee dram: slainte!
